

32 VOLUNTEER PERFORMERS NEEDED FOR A ONE-OF-A-KIND EVENT
AT THE UNIVERSITY OF REGINA!

The commitment: one hour of your time on Friday, January 17th, 2014 between the hours of 11am and 7pm.

This is an opportunity to participate in an event by international performance artist, Julie Vulcan. As a participant you will be 'standing in' for a body. The actual participation will be approximately 15 minutes during which you will be attended to by the artist. You will have the opportunity to observe the work after and/or before if you wish.

Sound intriguing? Send us an email at istandinyqr@gmail.com as soon as possible to find out more about this exciting event. In exchange for your participation, you will receive FREE ADMISSION to Friday and Saturday night performances!

For more information about Julie's work and her performance, please see link:
PROGRAMS - FRIDAY, JANUARY 17TH

Link to documentation of performance - <http://www.spillfestival.com/performance/i-stand-in/>

“generous, thoughtful and moving”

“Julie created a safe space...intimate, reverent and with respect”

“Really rich and measured and provoking.”

“It was an extraordinary work, both to witness and to be inside of”

“Simple, subtle, sinister and beautiful...totally unexpected and wonderful”